A progressive euchar party was given by Miss Maunnie Strentz last Wednesday evening.

Christ Holl received his Christmas gift early this year, a baby girl last Saturday night.

J. T. McCormick has been re-elected commander of the Jas. K. Rochester G. A. R. post.

Miss Nan Gallagher, of Columbus has been visiting relatives and friends here the past week.

About six thousand dollars has already been subscribed for the new Presbyterian church in Logan.

Wm. Hankison and wife of Columbus are spending a few days near Webb Summit at James McGoners.

Mrs. Warden Dyer and daughter Mrs. C. A. Parker spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Amos Parker of this city.

The Hocking county Farmers Institute closed a very successful meeting Tuesday afternoon. Proceedings next week.

Dr. Pullen had an attack of vertigo last Saturday. His many friends will be glad to know that he is getting well and is out again.

A telegram was received Tuesday announcing the death of Mrs. Cherrington, of Oregon, daughter of Mr. George Strawn of our town.

Mrs. Josie Rochester and daughter who are visiting friends at Mrs. R's old home in Cary, Ohio, will remain until after the holidays.

Jason Ward, of here, section boss on the C. H. V. & T. received the first premium, $20.00 gold piece, from the Company for having the best kept sections.

The Logan Mfg Co. have begun the work of rebuilding, the employees of the factory as far as it is possible will do the work, McGroom furnishes the lumber.

Homer Newmaster of near Maxwell, while out hunting last Saturday, received a shot in the eye from a hunter, named Jones, who fired at a quail. Newmaster will lose the sight of his eye.

When a subscriber fails to get his paper, unless the failure can be explained by the postmaster, we ask that information be sent us. It is our business to have the SENTINEL reach subscribers.

Will Guthrie is so busy this week hauling corn to his granary that he has not the time to fully advise the readers of the SENTINEL of the holiday attractions to be found at the store. He will tell you next week.

Mr. W. P. Wuebben, a Seminarian at the Columbus college, and who when ordained to the Ministry will have charge at the Hunter street Lutheran church, conducted the religious exercises, here last Sunday.

Mr. Ed Pleakbark, for a long time book keeper at Motherwells, has taken an interest in the Hardware store with Mr. Hamblin. Mr. Pleakbark is a first class business man, and will bring increased trade to his popular store.

The T. O'Mallen Journal of yesterday makes the startling statement that a burglar, trying to get into Ham Meltrons house, "when in the middle of the street fell down and that was the last seen of him." Is it mud or a miracle?

Every enterprising, prosperous business man in Logan advertises in the SENTINEL. The man who does not invite the custom of the readers of a newspaper fifty years in existence, and identified with every interest in the town, is a stranger, and perhaps wants to continue so.

Squire Younker of Maxwell has secured an original pension for Eli B. by Marion township, $ 3.00 per month, and an increase to $17.00 for Comrade Joe Hatler of Columbus. The Squire understands the pension business, and we are glad deserving soldiers are benefitted by his agency.

This is the time for our business men who have holiday goods to let the public know it. If you think nobody is likely to read an advertisement, just in a line notice offer to trade any article you have for a cat. If you can get the custom of persons with cats for trade, isn't it likely you'll get patrons with cash to buy.

We will pay ten cents each, for a dozen issues of the SENTINEL of Oct. 13th, 1892. It sometimes happens, that a paper is more valuable than the reader at first supposes. The demand for copies of that issue was unusually great. It is a good idea to save your papers. Then bind them, it makes an interesting work and may be a valuable one.

We notice in a recent Cleveland paper the published will of the late millionaire, W. J. Gordon. An item in the list of bequests shows that the dead man had a warm and grateful heart. The simple statement, reads, "I give to my friend W. R. Keith fifteen thousand dollars." No explanation or consideration made, it was a gift offering of a man to a friend. The recipient of the bequest mentioned is the father of Mrs. Lawrence Yerges of our city.

Commissioner Kreig has taken an agency to sell fruit trees from the nursery of Mr. David Fink, of near St. Josephs, O. Mr. Fink's nursery is on the farm where the celebrated Fink or "long keeper apple" was grown. He is a man who has devoted his life to tree culture, and fruit growing. He understands his business, his trees are hardy, healthy, adapted to the soil and climate of this locality. Mr. Fink has an established reputation for honesty. Mr. Joe Kreig is known to this community. Uncle Joe may not build bridges across every dry run, he may cut a bill but he won't tell a lie, if he knows it, and he won't perjure a fraud. He may not have beautiful pictures to show, and he is not as sleek tongued as a Yankee peddler but he will deal with you fairly. This is not an advertisement, but information that is valuable to farmers who intend planting trees.

BY RAIL TO JERUSALEM.

The Whistle of the Locomotive Now

Heard in the Holy City.

The first locomotive from Jaffa has arrived at Jerusalem, says the London

News. In this event we have a new and ample text for the preachers. The associations of the Holy city and its contact with the railway system are something incongruous to contemplate.

It will be sufficient to excite the wrath of Mr. Ruskin, as it must appear to him to be a greater sacrilege than that of the British tourist shooting on Mount

Sinai. Letters received from Jerusalem

by the Palestine exploration fund,

dated on the 23d ult., announce that the locomotive had reached the city the previous day. Trains are not yet running, but the rails have been laid down all along the line, and our Paris correspondent says that the line, which is being made by a French company,

will be opened on the 20th of this month. The terminus is undisturbed will be on the west of the road to Bethlehem, not far from the south end of the Montefiore almshouses. The Wadi

Rababeh, perhaps better known as the valley of Hinnom, will separate the railway station from the town, and it will thus be about half a mile from the Jaffa gate. Luckily, the temple site, with Gethsemane and the Mount of Olives, is on the opposite side of the town, and will not be much disturbed

by the noise of the railway. It may be mentioned that the Wadi Rababeh means "the valley of the sons." The Arabs will now have to call it—if

Arabic words can be found for the sentence—"The Wadi of the Railway

Whistle."

CHANCES FOR COLORED FOLKS.

Advantages for them by settling in the city of Omaha.

The colored people seem to have been absorbed successfully in the population of Omaha, where they find opportunities often denied them elsewhere.

There are 6,000 of them in that city.

The children attend the public schools,

and no discrimination is made against them. In professional and business pursuits negroes are found everywhere, and they prosper. In Omaha, according to the Chicago Tribune, there are three lawyers of this race, two physicians, and one editor. The composers

on the editor's paper are of both sexes, and, of course, colored. There are three negroes on the police force, and
